February 9, 2023, Auburn Hills, Mich. - The Jeep® brand is proudly celebrating 20 years of the game-changing Wrangler Rubicon at the 2023 Chicago Auto Show with the Wrangler Rubicon 20th Anniversary editions, the most capable Wranglers yet.

Available on both the 2023 Wrangler Rubicon 4xe and 2023 Wrangler Rubicon 392, the Rubicon 20th Anniversary editions each deliver the Wrangler Rubicon's legendary go-anywhere capability and unequalled spirit of freedom and adventure, designed to tackle the trail they're named after straight from the Toledo (Ohio) Assembly Complex.

"Twenty years ago, a small group of enthusiastic Jeep engineers affectionately known as the 'Lunatic Fringe,' with grit and determination and their personal credit cards, designed, engineered and developed the most capable Wrangler yet – the Jeep Wrangler Rubicon – and overdelivered on everyone's expectations because they knew it was what Jeep customers wanted," said Jim Morrison, senior vice president and head of Jeep brand North America. "Today the Rubicon model represents about a quarter of overall Wrangler sales, with more than 700,000 sold worldwide, and include the electrified Rubicon 4xe, the best-selling and most capable PHEV in America. That same spirit of determination and ingenuity that led to the creation of the Wrangler Rubicon lives on in these new 20th anniversary special editions, which for the first time, bring available 37s to the Wrangler, providing unmatched capability."

The limited run of 2023 Jeep Wrangler Rubicon 4xe 20th Anniversary and 2023 Wrangler Rubicon 392 20th Anniversary, available for order this month, are priced at a starting U.S. manufacturer's suggested retail price (MSRP) of $69,585 and $90,895, respectively (all prices exclude $1,795 destination charge). Production of the Rubicon 20th anniversary models is scheduled to begin at the Toledo (Ohio) Assembly Complex this quarter, with vehicles arriving in dealerships in Q2 of 2023.

Wrangler Rubicon: 20 years of unmatched capability

The Jeep Wrangler Rubicon was originally developed as an internal underground project, led by a small group of passionate Jeep engineers who envisioned a more off-road-focused Wrangler, one that featured popular aftermarket capability upgrades as factory equipment, all backed by a full warranty.

The result was the most capable production off-road vehicle the world had ever seen – the 2003 Jeep Wrangler Rubicon. Introduced at Easter Jeep Safari in Moab, Utah, in spring 2002, the original Wrangler Rubicon started production in summer 2002, and went on to beat all sales expectations.

Each successive iteration of Wrangler Rubicon has added features to further enhance capability:

2003 Wrangler Rubicon (TJ):

- Front and rear locking differentials
- Rock-Trac transfer case with 4:1 low range
- Rock rails
- 31-inch off-road tires
- Dana 44 axles with 4.10:1 axle ratio

2007 Wrangler Rubicon (JK):

- New electronic disconnecting front sway bar for increased articulation
- Larger 32-inch off-road tires
- Available in both 2-door and 4-door variants

2013 Wrangler Rubicon 10th Anniversary (JK):

- New heavy-duty steel rock rails
- New steel front and rear bumpers (front winch capable)
- Half-inch suspension lift

2018 Wrangler Rubicon (JL):

- Larger 33-inch off-road tires
- Crawl ratio improved to 84:1 with manual transmission

2021 Wrangler Rubicon (JL):

- Off-Road+ added as standard
- Selec-Speed Control added as standard
- Electrified Rubicon 4xe introduced, offering nearly silent off-roading, 21 miles of all-electric range and 470 lb.-ft. of torque
- V-8 Rubicon 392 introduced, delivering 470 horsepower, 0-60 mph in 4.5 seconds and standard Selec-Trac full-time 4WD system
- Optional factory 35-inch tires (Xtreme Recon Package)
- Optional 4.88 axle ratio improved crawl ratio to 100:1 with manual transmission

2023 Wrangler Rubicon 20th Anniversary (JL):

- Triple hoop grille guard
- Half-inch suspension lift
- 83-piece tool kit
- On-board air compressor (Rubicon 392)
- Standard 35-inch tires (Rubicon 392)
