Chrysler Group Prevails in Utah, New Jersey and Massachusetts Arbitrations; Three Ohio Arbitrations Are Dismissed

- Time Period: Week of May 17
- Decisions for Chrysler: Hinckley Dodge (UT), Tenaflly Chrysler Jeep (NJ) and Midway Motors (MA)
- Dismissals: Ganley Chrysler, Ganley Dodge and Ganley East (OH)

May 19, 2010, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Chrysler Group is pleased the arbitrators agreed with the difficult dealer decisions made during the bankruptcy proceedings. Chrysler presented evidence during the arbitration hearings that demonstrated the Company employed sound business judgment in restructuring its dealer network. Chrysler is confident the difficult decisions made during bankruptcy will continue to position the Company for sustainable success and, ultimately, will enable the Company to repay the U.S. Taxpayer in a timely manner.
